

CONSOLIDATED RESULTS (2016-2024)

VICTIMS AND TRANSITIONAL JUSTICE THEMATIC AREA

No. of projects:

89

(see list in financial annex)

Participating organisations: 119 CSOs and UN Agencies:

UNDP

OIM

UN Women

UNFPA

OHCHR

UNICEF

FAO

WFP

Verification Mission

% of the Fund's total investment:

26.6%

This thematic area responds to the commitment to support and/or back the state in its comprehensive victim reparation strategy, with a differential, gender approach, as well as granting victims access to the truth, justice, reparation and non-repetition. Specifically, this thematic area supports two main strategic lines:

1.1 Support and backing for the state in its comprehensive victim support and reparation strategy

 46

collective reparation subjects were supported in the development and implementation of their reparation plans.

Reparations accelerated for

 87,869
victims.

 65,376

victims received psychosocial support.

125 women and 95 men

were supported with production projects on their restituted landholdings.

Support for the updating of the

Collective Reparation Plan

of the Nasa and Bari communities with a focus on gender, women, families and generation.

25,090

female victims were supported in collective reparation, return and relocation processes.

1.2 Promotion of the guarantee of victims' rights to truth, justice, reparations and non-repetition, through their participation in the strengthened Justice for Peace System.

Support for the creation, deployment and compliance of the mandate of the three entities of the

Comprehensive System for Peace

(CEV, UBPD and JEP).

87,792 women and 77,006 men

have participated in the Comprehensive System for Peace as part of the transitional justice framework.

CEV Final Report

Support for the collection of inputs, documentation, and preparation of the

the development of transmedia; its dissemination; preservation of the legacy; management of physical and digital archives; and assistance in establishing the Recommendations Monitoring Committee (CSM) and the implementation of its recommendations.

29 initiatives

Support for that promote the implementation of the recommendations of the Truth Commission's report.

10

of the JEP's 11 macro cases have been supported by Fund projects.

3,348

female victims participated in transitional justice mechanisms of the JEP through the chambers for truth recognition, responsibility, and determination of facts and conduct in macro-cases 1, 3, 4, 5, 7, and 9, and successfully advanced macro-case 11 with their organisations.

3,205

men participated in judicial proceedings for macro-cases 01, 03, 04, 05, and 07 before the JEP.

16,207

women strengthened the Legacy Allies Network, whose gender-focused approach mobilised territorial agendas aimed at promoting recommendations with an intersectional perspective, directed towards gender and ethnicity.

291

people participated in the preparation and implementation activities of the exploratory restorative projects.

4

regional search plans supported.

2,735

cases were handed over to the UBPD to support the search, location, identification, and dignified return of missing people.

490

people provided information for the search in Catatumbo. 810 victims of forced disappearance contributed information to the search for missing people in Córdoba, Cesar, Santander, Tolima, Bogotá, Magdalena Medio, Meta, and Sucre.

304

victims' and civil society organisations were supported and advised on legislative matters and political participation mechanisms.

658

women strengthened their capacities and knowledge for legislative impact in support of the Peace Agreement.

460

victims of crimes of the state have supported the search efforts.

55,674

female victims received psychosocial care and/or support for emotional recovery in accordance with the differentiated care guidelines for women and ethnic groups.